

Meet the ten members of the Pastor Search Committee . . .

Sue Buchanan, 62: I've been a member of CUCC for 29 years and served on most Commissions and in other leadership positions. I'm a nurse and lawyer, and have been the Executive Director of the Boulder Valley Women's Health Center in Boulder for the last 17 years.

Mark Dunn Lewis, Biologist/Toxicologist working in environmental assessment and cleanup of contaminated sites. Hiker, skier, fly-fisher, dog-Guardian.

Gwen Goodwin, 65, retired IT Mainframe Professional after 30 years. Member of CUCC since 2005, Sunday School teacher and substitute Office Administrator for over a decade. Oh, and I'm a transwoman.

Spense Havlick is a professor emeritus in Environmental Design at U. of Colorado, and a former member of Boulder City Council. A strong environmental advocate.

Deborah Hayes, 78, is a retired CU Boulder music professor, musicologist. Member of CUCC since 2001, and member of our choir, music committee, Fellowship Commission, memorials committee, prayer team.

Cole Keirsey: I am a retired technical writer and programmer. I've been living in Boulder for 45 years, and have been a member of CUCC for about fourteen years. I sing in our choir and, last year, led a discussion group on The Book of Joy for church members.

Judi Kleinman has been living in Boulder and a member of CUCC for ten and a half years. Retired child psychiatrist whose career in clinical work and teaching was all in Ann Arbor, MI.

Stan Stutzman and his wife are newly returned to the Boulder area after a long absence. He is a retired psychologist who recently discovered his passion for gardening. A spiritual seeker.

Clint Wall is in a family of four with two young girls; drawn to CUCC by progressive approach. Had a wonderful experience in the Jesuit Volunteer Corps on the Colville Reservation.

John Woods has been in Boulder area since 1970 and out of college to work in high tech until 2002 when transitioned to management consulting. Active in Habitat for Humanity and CUCC's CCC (Community Compassion Corps) that includes work/learning trips nationally and internationally. Active in CUCC for ten years and a member for five years.
